SAN MIGUEL COUNTY LEADER, ON STUMP IN GUADALUPE COUNTY, RELATES AMAZING INCIDENT SHOWING CHARACTER OF DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES.

ASSERTS HE ATTEMPTED TO SHOOT HIS OWN BROTHER

Man Who Democrats Have Sought to Brand as "Sore," Makes Ringing Campaign for Bureau and Whole Republican Ticket.

(By Guthrie Smith.)

Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 5.—Guadalupe county was not to be outdone by other counties in the matter of interest shown by its citizens in the address made by the members of the Republican campaign party, which has closed the tour of that county. In addition to the candidates for the three principal offices, H. O. Bureau for governor, Frank A. Hubbell for United States senate and Benigno C. Hernandez for representative in congress, the party was joined at Las Vegas by Secundino Romero, who sought the nomination for governor, and O. A. Larrasola, who developed a strong following in the convention for the nomination for justice of the supreme court, though he declared to the end that he was no more than a receptive candidate.

Whether the meetings were held in the morning or afternoon, in the busy part of the harvest season, or prolonged until 1:30 in the morning, the voters were present in large numbers, often accompanied by their wives, sisters and daughters, and they remained until the close of the meeting. From Antelope on the one side, clear over to Fort Sumner in the southeastern corner, the people wanted to see the candidates and to hear a full expression of the policies and principles for which the candidates are standing.

Romero, Leader of Campaign Party.

The feature of the swing through Guadalupe county which perhaps surprised many people—particularly of the opposition—more than any other, was the attitude of Secundino Romero, who made a most vigorous campaign for the nomination for governor. In the state convention, held at Santa Fe on August 24 and 25, Romero showed his unwavering allegiance to the party and the progress of his heart. In the speech which he made immediately after the vote was announced showing Bureau the winner, the San Miguel delegation occupied front seats, to the left of the platform. Romero was on his feet the moment the vote was announced and walked down to the center of the auditorium, directly in front of the platform. With all the feeling that he could put into voice and gesture, he declared that he had no fault to find with the selection of the convention, that Bureau remained his good friend, and that he would support the ticket faithfully and earnestly. He had told me nearly a month before that the ticket of the convention would be his ticket, that it would receive his whole support.

But notwithstanding his published interview, and his mainly speech in the convention, which also was given to the press, there was a most persistent effort made to convince the general public that he was "sore," and would deliberately plunge the knife right through the heart of the ticket.

Backs Ticket Strongly.

At every one of the six meetings held in Guadalupe county he made speeches in which he made a strong plea for support of the Republican ticket, national and state. His endorsement of Bureau was especially powerful. Declaring that he was perfectly contented with the will of the convention, he declared that Bureau was admirably fitted for the most important duties of governor, in that he is big hearted, level headed, of the strictest integrity and better informed than any other man as to the needs of the state. He also spoke in the highest terms of Frank A. Hubbell, who, as one of the biggest business men in the southwest, would ably represent New Mexico in the senate, and of Benigno C. Hernandez, who has been capable and alert in serving the best interests of the people in the lower house of congress.

However, he did not stop with an endorsement of his own ticket. He pointed out what he declared to be a glaring fault or weakness in E. C. de Baca, who has been named by the Democratic party for the work of chief executive.

"Mr. de Baca is temperamentally unfitted for the work of the high office to which he is a pretense," declared Romero, as he spoke in Spanish to the people. "He is vindictive and revengeful to an alarming extent and is too likely to resort to dangerous and extreme methods when his anger is aroused."

Romero's Amazing Charge.

Romero then related an incident which he declared proved the unreliability and unfitness of de Baca. He said that some years ago, in Las Vegas, de Baca's father was a candidate on the Republican ticket. At a joint meeting which was held, Manuel C. de Baca, brother of the Democratic nominee for governor, made a speech in which he asked for the support of the Republican candidate. Romero said this so infuriated E. C. de Baca that he pulled his pistol and tried to shoot his own brother. "A man who will try to kill his own brother for no other reason than that he had supported his father, who sought office on another political ticket, certainly cannot be trusted to administer the affairs of this great state," Romero concluded.

REPUBLICANS IN CHEERFUL SPIRITS AFTER CAMPAIGN IN FOUR BIG COUNTIES

HUBBELL, HERNANDEZ AND BUREAU WIND UP FIRST ROUND OF CAMPAIGN AT STATE FAIR IN ALBUQUERQUE THIS WEEK.

SAN JUAN, TAOS, MORA AND GUADALUPE VISITED

Everywhere Word Is the Same—The People Want Return of Republican Government in State and Nation.

Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 28.—The heads of the Republican state ticket, Frank A. Hubbell for the Senate, Ben C. Hernandez for Congress and H. O. Bureau for governor, reached Albuquerque Sunday night, after the first big round of their statewide campaign and are spending the week of the State Fair in this city, holding conferences on campaign detail and meeting the people. They were joined here Tuesday by W. E. Lindsey of Portales, candidate for lieutenant governor, who has been making a notably successful campaign in the Pecos valley, by Robert P. Keven, commissioner of public lands, by J. H. Wagner, candidate for state superintendent of public instruction, and others of the state ticket, and by the state chairman and almost all of the state committeemen and county chairmen.

An advisory conference is being held from day to day among the Republicans upon details of the campaign and the state chairman and the candidates have been making reports of progress.

People Want Republican Government.

The heads of the ticket have covered San Juan, Taos, Mora and Guadalupe counties. They have been received everywhere with hearty welcome and cordial approval. Their meetings have been attended by great crowds and the people have shown in emphatic ways that New Mexico demands restoration of the Republican party in both state and national administrations.

"It may be said with some assurance that the Republican party of New Mexico is united as it has never been before," said Mr. Hubbell today in discussing the trip and the situation in the state. "All of the reports coming to headquarters are satisfactory and we have been deeply impressed, first by the unanimity of sentiment among Republicans and second by their activity in behalf of success for Hughes and Fairbanks and for our state ticket. State committeemen, county chairmen, precinct chairmen, and the whole rank and file of our party are taking an active, working interest such as we have never known before at this early stage of a long campaign. In Taos, Mora and Guadalupe counties, where we have been for the past sixteen days, the people are with us. They are for our candidates individually, but more important than that, they are convinced that this nation needs a Republican president in the White House and a Republican Congress behind him. New Mexico is absolutely safe, I should say, for the national ticket by a great majority."

"I have been deeply impressed by the reception given to Mr. Bureau and Mr. Hernandez, my companions on this first campaign trip. The people welcome them both with an enthusiasm which is so genuine that it cannot be mistaken. Both will be elected and elected by convincing majorities. No campaign of mud and lies can change the sentiment of a people who know who and what they need and want."

Campaign Now Starts in Earnest.

When they leave Albuquerque tomorrow the Republican candidates thoroughly organized their plans and their field parties made up will begin the campaign in earnest. They will branch out from Albuquerque into northern New Mexico, to the northern New Mexico fair at Raton, to the Cowboy's Reunion at Tucuman, to the Pecos valley and to south-west New Mexico. At the same time the "Sore" Bureau will not let a single opportunity pass to make a "sore" out of the Republican campaign. They will branch out from Albuquerque into northern New Mexico, to the northern New Mexico fair at Raton, to the Cowboy's Reunion at Tucuman, to the Pecos valley and to south-west New Mexico. At the same time the "Sore" Bureau will not let a single opportunity pass to make a "sore" out of the Republican campaign.

"I have seldom seen anything like the response to our call for 'sore'," said Judge Holloman today. "We select a number of men to speak in this campaign during the state convention period. They all consented. Recently I sent a letter to three men who have marked ability on the platform. Every one responded with his consent not only to speak but to give his whole time to the campaign for the period of the campaign. We will be ready, therefore, on the first of next week, to formulate our speaking campaign for the whole of October, and to carry it through without a hitch. We shall be able to give the people of New Mexico a thorough speaking campaign."

Democrats Meet With Difficulties.

Republican campaign managers here express considerable interest in the progress of the Democratic candidates thus far in their campaign. Reports, they say, show that Governor McDonald has met with a cool, if not a frigid reception in the Pecos valley, where he has been the past week with De Baca and Manuel A. Otero, who at this early stage in the campaign, has turned by the character of his speeches in the Pecos valley towns.

The First State Bank of Las Cruces WAS CLOSED DECEMBER 8, 1914

It Had Been Hopelessly Insolvent for More Than a Year. During Nearly All of That Time

William C. McDonald

THEN AND NOW THE GOVERNOR OF NEW MEXICO, and at present seeking election as lieutenant governor under conditions which make him in effect a candidate to succeed himself as governor.

Knew That This Bank Was Insolvent

GOVERNOR McDONALD KNEW—

That this bank was under complete control of a man with a record as a bank wrecker.

That large sums of public money, funds of the State Agricultural College, were deposited therein.

That large numbers of individuals had deposits in this bank, who had no other protection than that which he could give them through his personal appointee, the state traveling auditor and bank examiner, and through his own executive authority.

GOVERNOR McDONALD KNEW—

When he visited Las Cruces, in company with his bank examiner, on January 30, 1914, fully ten months before the bank was closed, that this bank was being looted, and that its capital stock was impaired to the extent of 150 per cent.

The Governor knew then that two men holding office by his appointment, the president and the secretary-treasurer of the Board of Regents of the State Agricultural College, were intimately connected with this bank.

The Bank Failed

NEARLY 600 INDIVIDUAL DEPOSITORS LOST THEIR MONEY. AMONG THEM WERE MORE THAN 90 WOMEN. THERE WERE WIDOWS, ORPHANS, THE AGED, THE SICK. IN SOME INSTANCES SAVINGS OF A LIFETIME WERE INVOLVED.

APPROXIMATELY $75,000 OF STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE MONEY WAS TIED UP AND IS STILL TIED UP, PROTECTED ONLY BY THE COLLEGE TREASURER'S DISPUTED BOND.

Had Governor McDonald acted in January, 1914, when he was first fully informed of the condition of this bank, the individual losses suffered would have been small.

GOVERNOR McDONALD DID NOT ACT THEN—HE DID NOT ACT AT ALL UNTIL AFTER THE BANK HAD BEEN CLOSED, DECEMBER 8, 1914. THEN HE DEMANDED THE RESIGNATION OF THE SECRETARY-TREASURER OF THE STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE—BY WIRE.

THE FAT WAS IN THE FIRE—THE MONEY WAS LOST—THE GOVERNOR OF NEW MEXICO DEMANDED THE RESIGNATION OF AN OFFICIAL OVER WHOM HE HAD HAD FULL EXECUTIVE AUTHORITY DURING ALL THIS TIME AND OF WHOSE RELATIONS WITH THIS LOOTED BANK HE HAD BEEN FULLY AWARE.

Why Did Governor McDonald Not Act?

- In behalf of the State Agricultural College?
- In behalf of the nearly 600 depositors, men, women and children, whose funds he knew were in peril?
- In behalf of the honorable and honestly conducted banking institutions of this state, who were being forced into business relations and competition with bank wreckers?
- In behalf of decency, fair play and the good name of this state?

Those Democrats who support Governor McDonald and his record, led by the governor himself, have entered this campaign with a flood of generalized abuse, slander and untruths. It is their intent, by this course, to detract the attention of our people from the official record made by William C. McDonald, as governor of this state, and for which Governor McDonald has forced his party to become responsible, by taking a place upon its ticket.

IT IS THE PURPOSE OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY TO PRESENT THE OFFICIAL RECORD OF WILLIAM C. McDONALD TO THE PEOPLE—AS IT IS WRITTEN IN THE RECORD—CLEARLY, COMPLETELY, FAIRLY—WITHOUT VILE LANGUAGE, WITHOUT SLANDER, WITHOUT ABUSE.

THE TRAGIC RECORD OF THE FIRST STATE BANK OF LAS CRUCES IS PART OF THE RECORD OF GOVERNOR McDONALD. THE ANSWER TO THE QUESTION—

Why Did Governor McDonald Not Act?

- In protection of state funds?
- In protection of the people?
- In protection of law and order and the good name of the state?

IS WRITTEN IN THE SWORN TESTIMONY OF GOVERNOR McDONALD'S OWN APPOINTEES, SUPPORTERS AND FRIENDS.

YOU WILL READ THIS RECORD AS IT IS PRESENTED AND REACH YOUR OWN CONCLUSIONS.
